ACCREDITATION INSPECTION BEGINS TODAY

The joint inspection team from the American Bar Association and the Association of American Law Schools begins its three-day visit today. The team members are Dean Jerome Barron of George Washington University National Law Center; Dean Steven Frankino of Catholic University of America School of Law; Alice Murray, Librarian of McGeorge School of Law, University of the Pacific; and Professor Mark Spiegel of Boston College Law School. The team will be meeting with individual faculty members, administrative staff, and student organization leaders. They will also be visiting some classes.

CHICAGO-KENT STUDENT WINS JUSTINIAN SCHOLARSHIP

Margherita Albarello, a third-year Chicago-Kent student, has been named a winner in the Justinian Society scholarship competition. She will receive a $1000 scholarship for the 1983-84 academic year.

PLACEMENT NEWS

FBI Recruiter

On October 11 at 12 noon, a recruiter from the FBI will be speaking in room 325. All students interested in a career with the FBI, especially those who were not able to make an individual interview appointment, are urged to attend.

U.S. Attorney's Office, Northern District of Illinois-Spring 1984 Intern Program

This program is for students who will be in their third year of law school next spring. Students will be provided with the greatest possible exposure to and participation in federal trial and appellate practice. Interns are expected to work at least 16 hours a week. The work can be done for work-study funds or for course credit. If it is done for course credit, authorization must be given by Professor Gary Laser. Applications are available in the Placement Office, room 321, and must be submitted to the U.S. Attorney's Office by November 7, 1983.

Resume Preparation Workshop

Learn how to construct a resume and a cover letter. This program is aimed specifically for first year students but all are welcome to attend. There will be two sessions, each covering the same materials: Tuesday, October 18, 12 noon, room 324, and Wednesday, October 19, 5 p.m., room 325.

Attention all January and June 1984 Graduates

We have been receiving notices about teaching fellowships for the academic year 1984-85. Please come in to the Career Planning and Placement Office and look at this information if you are interested in one of these teaching opportunities for next year.

ALUMNI OFFICE OFFERS UNIQUE JOB OPPORTUNITY

If you have excellent bartending experience (references required), this should interest you. On Thursday, October 20, from 5 - 6 p.m., the law school will host an Alumni Open House. We need students with good bartending skills. This is a great opportunity for you to connect with alumni in various legal positions. If you are interested and feel your bartending skills are in top form, please submit your name, phone number, locker number, and references to Adrienne McNamara, room 323.

CHANGE OF DIVISION

Students who wish to change divisions for the Spring 1984 semester, must submit their written request to Dean Rudstein, no later than October 14, 1983. A copy of the request should also be submitted to the Registrar's Office. All requests will be granted, if possible. Students lose no priority on the first division change. See Section 3.2(b) pp. 4-5 of the 1983/84 Student Handbook for additional information regarding Change of Division.

ATTENTION FALL 1983 GRADUATES

Bar applications are now available for students planning to take the February 1984 Illinois Bar Exam. Applications may be picked up in the Registrar's Office. The Certificate of the Dean is automatically submitted by the Registrar's Office.

MAKEUP WEEK

During the week of December 5 - 10, all classes that normally meet on Mondays, Thursdays, Fridays, and Saturdays will meet at their regularly scheduled times. These days are automatic makeups for Labor Day and the Thanksgiving holiday. Tuesday, December 6, and Wednesday, December 7 are makeup days for missed classes, including the Jewish holiday. On these two days, an instructor may schedule a day division makeup class at any regular class period between 9:30 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. (except between 11:45 a.m. - 1:55 p.m. on Tuesday, December 6), and an evening division makeup class at either 6:00 p.m. or 7:35 p.m., so long as the makeup does not conflict with another makeup class. These two days are not automatic makeup days.

TOUCH FOOTBALL

There will be two football games at Grant Park, near the bandstand, on Friday, October 21, at 3 p.m. Chicago-Kent Freshmen, with Professor Brill coaching, will play the senior men, with Professor Sodaro coaching. First year women will play senior women. Buses will leave Chicago-Kent at 2:15 and 2:30 to Grant Park. There will be no buses back, but there will be a big "after the game" party at the Aquarius on the corner of Madison and Wells starting one-half hour after the games are over. GET YOUR CHICAGO-KENT "T" SHIRTS AT THE BOOKSTORE before the game.

WRITING COMPETITIONS

The Letourneau Award

The American College of Legal Medicine is now accepting papers for the 1984 Letourneau Award, presented annually to a currently enrolled law student. The author of the outstanding paper will receive $250, and travel and hotel accommodations to the International Conference on Legal Medicine scheduled for May 9 - 12. In addition, a cash prize of $250, and $150, for second and third place, respectively, will be awarded. All papers should be submitted no later than December 31, 1983.

BUSINESS & PROFESSIONAL ETHICS AWARD

The editors of the Business and Professional Ethics Journal are offering a prize of $500 for the best paper on any ethical issue related to business and/or the professions. The winning paper will be published in the Business & Professional Ethics Journal. Entries should be postmarked no later than January 15, 1984.

THE ROBERT C. WATSON AWARD
